Compensation and time off

Total compensation

Northwestern Mutual's compensation philosophy is simple: Offer total compensation that is attractive, market-competitive, and differentiated by performance. Essentially, the more you contribute to company success, the more you are rewarded.

Base pay and annual compensation review

Northwestern Mutual provides base pay that is externally competitive and internally equitable. As a new employee, your base pay is determined by the experience and skills you bring to the organization. Base pay is reviewed on an annual basis, and during this review, your base pay may be adjusted to better align your pay with your performance.

Annual incentive pay

Our annual incentive plan provides a critical link between company and individual performance, allowing employees to share in the company's strong record of success. This incentive is how Northwestern Mutual rewards employees for the prior year's organizational and individual accomplishments.

Paid volunteer hours

In addition to your regular paid time off, you can take 16 paid volunteer hours annually to get involved in causes you care about.

Understanding premium structure and cost

Premium costs are spread across a wage-tiered premium structure. With a tiered structure, those with higher salaries (base salary plus target bonus) pay a higher premium than those with lower salaries. How much you pay in premiums in 2025 will also depend on who you cover, which medical plan you elect and whether or not you met some or all of the wellness rewards requirements.

2025 wage tiers
Wage Tier 1	Wage Tier 2	Wage Tier 3	Wage Tier 4
<$74,999	$75,000 - $124,999	$125,000 - $249,999	$250,000+

Wage is defined as base salary plus target bonus as of hire date and October 1 ongoing.

2025 monthly premiums for employees who reside in a Centivo Coverage area

Employees who reside in one of the five new Centivo markets will pay the UMR HSA plan premiums on page 13 if they enroll in that plan.

Voluntary part-time and long-term temporary employees will pay twice the premium amounts shown below.

Spousal/domestic partner surcharge: The premiums shown for “employee and spouse/domestic partner” and “family” include a $100 monthly surcharge ($1,200 annually). Before you automatically cover your spouse/domestic partner, consider your other options. If your spouse/domestic partner has coverage through their employer, compare to determine whether that plan could save you money.

Adjustment for Northwestern Mutual married couples: If both spouses work at Northwestern Mutual and one elects “employee and spouse” or “family” coverage, be sure to answer “Yes” to the Northwestern Mutual Married Couples question in Benefitplace, then subtract $100 from the monthly employee and spouse/domestic partner or family rate on pages 12-13 to calculate your monthly premium.

Tobacco surcharge: Employees pay an additional $50 per month ($600 annually) if one or more covered members (employee, spouse/ domestic partner or child) use tobacco. When you enroll, you will need to certify that you and your covered family members are tobacco-free according to the plan’s definition, or the surcharge will apply. Northwestern Mutual defines tobacco-free for 2025 as no use of any form of tobacco, nicotine products, or nicotine-based smoking cessation products, use of chewing tobacco or snuff, snus, chews, nicotine pouches, or hookah 12 or fewer times per year; 12 or fewer cigars per year; and 12 or fewer pipes per year as of January 1, 2024.

Domestic partners: Because a domestic partner is not considered a tax dependent by the IRS, the amount you pay for medical coverage for a domestic partner cannot be deducted from your pay on a pre-tax basis. Your share of the premium related to your domestic partner coverage will be deducted after tax, which means your overall premium cost will be higher than when covering a spouse. The company’s contribution for the portion related to domestic partner coverage will also be taxable income to you and reported as imputed income on your paycheck. If you have a question as to the actual cost difference, please call the HR Contact Center at 414-665-5900.

Savings and Spending Accounts

Health Savings Account (HSA)

Our high-deductible health plans come with a Health Savings Account (HSA), which includes a quarterly contribution funded by Northwestern Mutual.

An HSA is a personal bank account that allows you to save on a tax-advantaged basis for both current and future healthcare expenses, even those you may face in retirement. Your HSA is always yours – you never lose the account balance, even if you leave Northwestern Mutual or retire.

HSAs are known for offering a triple tax advantage:

- 1. Save with pre-tax contributions. You can set aside pre-tax dollars to help pay for eligible healthcare expenses. The HSA allows both you and the company to contribute (up to the annual limits set by the IRS each year). Any contributions you make to your HSA will come out of your paycheck tax free, which reduces your taxable income.
- 2. Earn tax-free interest and take advantage of tax-free investment opportunities. HSAs give you the opportunity to earn more through interest and investment options – and your money grows tax free. A unique feature of an HSA is that you can invest your contributions.
- 3. Pay for qualified expenses tax free. You can take funds out of your HSA to pay for qualifying medical, dental, vision and prescription drug expenses at any time without incurring any federal or state taxes or penalties. This applies to any expenses while you have an HSA, or any expenses you may face in the future.

HSA contributions: you + the company

For 2025, Northwestern Mutual will make automatic quarterly contributions to your HSA. You do not need to make contributions to your HSA to receive the Northwestern Mutual contribution, but you do need to be enrolled in a Northwestern Mutual high deductible medical plan and elect the HSA benefit during enrollment. Quarterly company contributions will be made on the first paycheck in January, April, July and October.

How much money will Northwestern Mutual contribute to your HSA? The amount of money Northwestern Mutual will contribute depends on your coverage tier.

Coverage Tier	Northwestern Mutual contribution to your HSA*	Maximum employee HSA contribution*	Annual Maximum
Employee only	$125 quarterly	$3,800	$4,300
Employee + spouse/ domestic partner	$250 quarterly	$7,550	$8,550
Employee + child(ren)	$250 quarterly	$7,550	$8,550
Employee + family	$375 quarterly	$7,050	$8,550

Note: Individuals who are over age 55 can contribute an additional $1,000 to their HSA.

*The Northwestern Mutual contribution is prorated based on your hire date (if hired in 2025). This means the employer and employee contribution amounts may be different than the amounts listed.

If your domestic partner is not your tax dependent, you can only contribute up to the single maximum of $4,300. In addition, you cannot use your HSA to reimburse your domestic partner’s healthcare expenses.

Flexible Spending Accounts

Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs) let you set aside pre-tax dollars to pay for eligible medical, dental, vision and/or dependent care (child care or elder care) expenses. You do not pay state, federal or Social Security taxes on the money you contribute. However, FSAs have a use-it-or-lose-it rule, so plan carefully to make sure you don't overfund your account(s).

Traditional and Limited Purpose Healthcare FSA

There are two types of healthcare FSAs, and your eligibility depends on the type of medical plan you enroll in. Traditional FSAs are offered with non-HSA qualifying plans (e.g., the Centivo High Performance copay plan and UMR copay plan). If you waive medical coverage, you will have access to a Traditional FSA. Dollars you contribute can be used to pay for qualified medical, pharmacy, dental and vision expenses.

A Limited Purpose FSA is for those individuals in a High Deductible Health Plan (i.e., Centivo High Performance HSA or UMR HSA plan) with a Health Savings Account (HSA). Eligible expenses include dental and vision, as well as healthcare expenses after the medical plan deductible is met. Some eligible expenses include:

- Dental services (excluding cosmetic services)
- Orthodontia
- Glasses, contacts and eye exams
- Lasik eye surgery

In 2025, you may contribute between $100 and $3,200 to your healthcare FSA.

You have from January 1 to December 31, 2025 to incur expenses and until March 31, 2026 to submit your claims for reimbursement. Any amount over $640 remaining in your account after March 31, 2026 will be forfeited.

Dependent Care FSA

You can participate in a Dependent Care FSA if you incur dependent daycare expenses that allow you to work. If you are married, your spouse must also be employed, be actively looking for work, go to school full time or be physically or mentally incapable of self-care. Eligible dependents include children under age 13 and dependents you claim for tax purposes who are physically or mentally incapable of self-care, such as elderly parents.

Dependent Care FSA reminders:

- Eligible expenses include daycare expenses, nanny expenses, before- and after-school care expenses and summer day camps, to name a few.
- You cannot use both the Dependent Care FSA and the federal child and dependent care tax credit for the same expenses.
- If you enroll in the Dependent Care FSA, your eligible expenses will be reimbursed up to the amount contributed to date.

For 2025, you may contribute between $100 and $5,000 if you're a single filer or married and filing jointly ($2,500 if married and filing separately).

You have from January 1 to December 31, 2025 to incur expenses and until March 31, 2026 to submit your claims for reimbursement. Any amount remaining after March 31, 2026 will be forfeited.

Save on commuting and parking costs

Northwestern Mutual employees (excluding short-term temporary employees) who pay for parking or use public transit to commute to work are eligible for savings.

You can reduce your monthly transportation expenses by setting aside up to $325 pretax for parking and another $325 for transit expenses, according to the 2025 IRS limit.

Eligible parking expenses include:

- Parking lots/garages
- Meters
- Ticket machines
- Bicycle storage

These must be near your place of work or near a transit station from which you commute to work.

Eligible transit expenses include:

- Bus fares
- Train fares
- Subway fares
- Ferry expenses

Unlike other pretax savings programs, the commuter benefits program allows you to pause, change or update your participation at any time.

2025 Retirement plans

As a financial services firm, we uniquely know the importance of saving for retirement and that is why we offer Northwestern Mutual employees highly valuable and highly competitive retirement savings plans.

Core components: 401(k) + Cash Balance

When it comes to retirement savings, many companies only offer a 401(k) option. We offer both a 401(k) plan and a Cash Balance retirement plan, sometimes referred to as a pension plan. We know offering both provides our employees a solid foundation to accumulate savings for a financially secure retirement.

- 401(k): The company has traditionally made a matching contribution of 67 cents for every $1 you contribute, up to the first 6% of your eligible pay (base pay + annual incentive pay). For 2025, Northwestern Mutual is not providing a matching contribution in the 401(k) and is instead making a larger contribution to employees cash balance benefits. You can contribute up to 50% of your eligible pay (up to the IRS limit of $23,500 for 2025, $31,000 for individuals age 50 or older by the end of calendar year 2025) into your 401(k) plan.

- Cash Balance: Northwestern Mutual automatically makes contributions into your plan that are equal to a percentage of your eligible compensation, based on your age and years of service. Only the company contributes to the Cash Balance retirement plan.

In 2025 Northwestern Mutual will make an additional Cash Balance contribution of 6% for all employees, beyond the company's normal cash balance contribution.

Cash balance contributions
Total points (Age + Service Years)	Normal contribution (% of Eligible Compensation)	2025 contribution
< 30 points	3.0%	9.0%
30 – 39 points	3.5%	9.5%
40 – 49 points	4.0%	10.0%
50 – 59 points	5.0%	11.0%
60 – 69 points	6.0%	12.0%
70+ points	7.0%	13.0%

The differences between the plans
